

Do not change this law. I am no longer receiving phone calls at midnight from people in California. This is a wonderful thing. Why can't people sign up to receive these calls and not have to worry about stopping them???